ASQ: The Global Voice of Quality

ASQ (American Society for Quality), is a global community of people passionate about quality, who use the tools, their ideas and expertise to make our world work better.

The 70,000+ member professional association, with representation in over 130 countries, creates better workplaces and communities worldwide by advancing learning, quality improvement, and knowledge exchange to improve business results.

By making quality a global priority, an organizational imperative, and a personal ethic, ASQ becomes the community for everyone who seeks technology, concepts, or tools to improve themselves and their world.

ASQ MEMBER UNITS

More than 230 volunteer-run local ASQ member units across the globe provide opportunities to meet and learn the business of quality from people in your community.

One local membership is included when you become a member of ASQ.

ASQ COLUMBIA BASIN

COLUMBIA BASIN PROVIDES OUR MEMBERS WITH:

- Meetings
- Site Visits
- Newsletter
- Website
- Certification exam support
- Leadership opportunities
- Educational opportunities, seminars, and conferences

Membership meetings are usually held the second Tuesday or Wednesday of the month, September through May, with networking starting at 5:30 p.m. The meeting format allows a time to network and enjoy dinner, followed by a topic-specific quality presentation. We also offer periodic site visits/tours to experience hands-on examples of quality practices.

For more information about ASQ membership and/or to make a reservation for the next meeting, please check our website at asq614.org.

*ASQ membership options include Full, Associate, Organizational and Student; each with different costs and benefits.
