ASQ: The Global Voice of Quality

ASQ (American Society for Quality), is a global community of people passionate about quality, who use the tools, their ideas and expertise to make our world work better.

The 80,000+ member professional association, creates better workplaces and communities worldwide by advancing learning, quality improvement, and knowledge exchange to improve business results.

By making quality a global priority, an organizational imperative, and a personal ethic, ASQ becomes the community for everyone who seeks technology, concepts, or tools to improve themselves and their world.

ASQ SECTIONS

More than 250 volunteer-run local ASQ sections in the United States, Canada, Mexico, India and Costa Rica allow you to meet and learn the business of quality from people in your community.

One geographic section membership is included when you become a member of ASQ.

ASQ SECTION 0614

COLUMBIA BASIN SECTION 0614 PROVIDES OUR MEMBERS WITH:

- Meetings
- Site Visits
- Newsletter
- Website
- Certification exams
- Leadership opportunities
- Educational opportunities, seminars, and conferences

Section membership meetings are usually held the second Tuesday of the month, September through May, with networking starting at 5:30 p.m. The meeting format allows a time to network and enjoy dinner, followed by a topic-specific quality presentation. Section 0614 also offers periodic site visits/tours to experience hands-on examples of quality practices.

For more information about ASQ membership and/or to make a reservation for the next meeting, please refer to our section website: asq614.org.

*ASQ membership options include Full, Associate and Student; each has different benefits.
