ASQ: The Global Voice of Quality

ASQ (American Society for Quality), is a global community of people passionate about quality, who use the tools, their ideas and expertise to make our world work better.

The 50,000+ member professional association, with representation in over 130 countries, creates better workplaces and communities worldwide by advancing learning, quality improvement, and knowledge exchange to improve business results.

By making quality a global priority, an organizational imperative, and a personal ethic, ASQ becomes the community for everyone who seeks technology, concepts, or tools to improve themselves and their world.

ASQ MEMBER UNITS

More than 200 volunteer-run local ASQ member units across the globe provide opportunities to meet and learn the business of quality from people in your community.

One local membership is included when you become a member of ASQ. In addition, you have access to all ASQ Divisions, with many resources and discussion groups.

COLUMBIA BASIN ASQ

COLUMBIA BASIN ASQ PROVIDES MEMBERS WITH:

- Meetings
- Site Visits
- Newsletter
- Website
- Certification exam support
- Leadership opportunities
- Educational opportunities, seminars, and conferences

Membership meetings are usually held the second Tuesday of the month, September through May, with networking starting at 5:30 p.m. The meeting format allows a time to network and enjoy dinner, followed by a topic-specific quality presentation. Site visits/tours are also offered periodically to experience hands-on examples of quality practices.

For more information about membership and about upcoming meetings and other activities, check our website at asq614.org or our community within ASQ at my.asq.org/communities/home/235.

*ASQ membership options currently include Professional, Organizational (through ASQE) and Student; each with different costs and benefits.
